

Partnership for Public Service, Inc.

(Washington, DC)

*General SupportTotal Award: $10,000 over 12 Months*Organization: www.ourpublicservice.org

For general support of the Partnership for Public Service which works to revitalize the federal government by inspiring a new generation to serve and by transforming the way government works.

American Civil Liberties Union Foundation

(New York, NY)

*National Security ProjectTotal Award: $25,000 over 12 Months*Organization: <http://www.aclu.org>

To support the ACLU National Security Project which will use litigation, advocacy strategies, and media outreach to establish accountability for the alleged human rights and constitutional abuses of the past eight years; to restore the freedoms that have been curtailed during that period; and to advocate for a new national security paradigm that is consistent with constitutional values and fundamental human rights.

Economists for Peace and Security, Inc.

(Annandale-on-Hudson, NY)

*Financial Crisis Task ForceTotal Award: $12,000 over 12 Months*Organization: www.epsusa.org

To support the creation of a Financial Crisis Task Force. The Task Force should be able to monitor, report on, and intervene as appropriate as threats to the global system develop, while developing effective alternatives to isolationism and protectionism in the pursuit of economic recovery and sustainable expansion. The Task Force will draft experts to serve as eyes-and-ears, use seminars to build a record and argument, and expose the results to the policy community and the larger world via short conferences, white papers, and briefings of senior policymakers in the government.

Positive Futures Network

(Bainbridge Island, WA)

*High Impact Campaign for the New Economy Issue of YES! MagazineTotal Award: $5,000 over 12 Months*Organization: <http://www.yesmagazine.org>

To help support the High Impact Campaign for the YES! Magazine Issue on the New Economy in collaboration with the New Economy Working Group. The Summer 2009 issue of YES! Magazine aims to spark a national conversation about far-reaching changes that are needed. The issue will examine how to restructure the ownership basis of business, the means by which we generate money, and the financial systems through which we extend credit. This High Impact Campaign expects to move the ideas and actions featured in this issue into the media and provide 6,000 free copies to educators, journalists, policymakers, business leaders, and grassroots activists.